

Situation Report: June 12-14, 2014

June 12-13: ISIS reportedly captures Speicher Airbase in Salah ad-Din near Tikrit. Video emerges of captured soldiers.

June 14: ISIS executes hundreds of Iraqi Army soldiers captured from Speicher Airbase. ISIS publishes photos of the summary executions on its official social media outlets.

June 14: Clashes took place between JRTN and ISF in the Udham area in Diyala Province.

June 14: 36 ISIS fighters are killed in Jalawla, Diyala Province following clashes and an attempted attack against a Peshmerga checkpoint.

June 14: ISF personnel and Asai'b Ahl al-Haq regained control of Muqdadiah, Diyala Province after clashes with ISIS.

June 13: ISF and local tribes reclaims the city of Dhuluiya, Salah ad-Din Province from ISIS. Iraqi Police reportedly resumes their posts within the city.

- Major Cities
- Recruitment Center
- ★ Major Clash
- ⊗ Execution
- ISF and Militias
- ISIS
- JRTN
- Peshmerga
- ⚡ Assessed ISIS HQ
- ⚡ Assessed ISIS Staging Area

by Ahmed Ali and Heather L. Pickerell

Iraqi Security Forces and militias are on the counter-offensive in Diyala and southern Salah ad-Din as ISIS tries to ignite a civil war in Iraq by executing hundreds of mostly Iraqi Shi'a soldiers. By publishing photos of the executions, ISIS is provoking retaliatory attacks by Iraqi Shi'a militias against Iraqi Sunni civilians. This event will test the self-restraint of the Iraqi government and militias as they blunt ISIS's advances.